Logistics Readiness Center, Bavaria employee is HERO OF THE WEEK

KAISERSLAUTERN, Germany – The 21st Theater Sustainment Command Hero of the Week is Ms. Hermine Graf of the 405th Army Field Support Brigade, Logistics Readiness Center, Bavaria for the week of May 19-23, 2014.

Ms. Graf distinguished herself while serving as a Dining Facility Attendant (DFA) Assistant Shift Leader for the Stryker Inn Dining Facility (DFAC). Ms. Graf excels in her normal duties, shows exceptional initiative in completing her assigned task and is a reliable and dedicated employee who cheerfully performs all assigned duties; which given the nature of her duties is not easy.

She is a stellar performer and maintains a clean/hygienic environment in which Soldiers can consume their meals, provided an environment that exceeds standards, and prevents health related issues or complaints. Her self-sacrificing and open mind often results in her “getting her hands dirty” in the pursuit of excellence. Her dedication to duty, willingness to lead, and her willingness to share her expertise represent the vanguard of professionalism and set an example for others to emulate. When Ms. Graf is on-the-job, Soldiers visiting the Stryker Inn can be assured that the environment is clean and healthy. During her tenure, there have been no health incidents related to unclean facilities or dining utensils.

The 21st Theater Sustainment Command, Commanding General, recognizes each Hero of the Week as part of his Commander’s Update with a Hero of the Week certificate.

Congratulations to Ms. Graf on a job well done.
