

U.S. ARMY SUSTAINMENT COMMAND

405TH ARMY FIELD SUPPORT BATTALION - AFRICA

AFSBn-Africa is headquartered at Leghorn Army Depot in Livorno, Italy, a strategic power projection platform.

One of four battalions in the 405th Army Field Support Brigade, AFSBn-Africa provides receipt, transfer, storage, and maintenance of Army Prepositioned Stocks and Operational Project Stocks to enable commanders to conduct the full range of military operations in support of U.S. Army Europe and Africa (USAREUR-AF).

The site is designated as an APS-2 work site, providing 749,000 square feet of climate-controlled storage (16 warehouses) and roughly 1.5 Million square feet of outside storage of assets for several COCOMs.

The battalion manages Army Material Command activities in support of U.S. Army Africa and SETAF-AF through a Logistic Support Team located at Camp Ederle, Vicenza, Italy.

The stock are aligned with U.S. deterrence and increase the readiness and responsiveness of U.S. forces in Europe, support NATO collective defense, and the security of US allies.

